Mr David Li re-elected as President (2017-2018) of Hong Kong Institute of Human Resource Management

[27 June 2017 – Hong Kong] Hong Kong Institute of Human Resource Management (HKIHRM) would like to announce Mr David Li Chi-ming has been re-elected as President of the HKIHRM for the 2017-2018 term. Mr Li has served as a member of the Institute's Executive Council since 2004 and Vice President from 2008 to 2013. Currently, he holds various key roles at the Institute including Chairperson of Management Committee, Chairperson of Membership Evaluation Committee, and Chairperson of Employee Engagement and Employers' Branding Committee, as well as Co-Chairperson of Professional Standards Committee.

In expressing his appreciation to the Executive Council members for their support and dedication, Mr Li reiterates his commitment to the work of the Institute. "I will continue to further enhance the Institute's influence as a leading professional organisation on local and global fronts through membership services, advocacy initiatives, and multilateral collaborations among others, while taking a leadership role in setting competency standards for Hong Kong's HR profession. As the Institute celebrates its 40th anniversary this year, I wish to thank members for their staunch support over the years, and I look forward to working closely with the Executive Council members, various committees and advisory boards, aided by the the Secretariat, to scale greater heights in our services and meet the professional needs and aspirations of members," said Mr Li.

About HKIHRM

As the most representative professional human resource institute in Hong Kong, the Hong Kong Institute of Human Resource Management (HKIHRM), a non-profit making organisation, has about 5,400 members, about 600 of whom are corporate members. Founded in February 1977, the Institute aims at developing, maintaining and enhancing professional standards in HR management, and increasing the perceived value and influence of the HR profession. The Institute organises a wide range of professional activities such as multi-level training programmes, conferences and an award programme, and provides services such as conducting surveys and publishing a professional journal. The Institute is commissioned by the Government of the HKSAR as the professional writer to develop and produce the Specification of Competency Standards (SCS) for the Human Resource Management sector under Hong Kong Qualifications Framework. The HKIHRM is a member of the Asia Pacific Federation of Human Resource Management which is one of the continental federations under the World Federation of People Management Associations.
